

Tenacious Leadership

Do you know who you are and why you're here?

What is Authentic Tenacious Leadership?

It's a result of being fully conscious as a leader! Having clarity on:

- Who we are – our wiring, personality, culture, and values
- Why we are - passions, purposes, and legacy
- What we are – the fullness of what we are - mind, body, senses, emotions, gut, spirit
- When we are - times & seasons, experiences, and opportunities

You are tenacious if you know, know like you know, in your knower:

- Who you are
- Why you are
- What you are
- When you are

Why do we need authentic tenacity?

The world is tired of unconscious or inauthentic “tenacity”.

Which is often about personal insecurity – attachment, bravado, or closed thinking; characterized by:

- The need to win arguments, even at the cost of losing wars
- The need to be right
- The need to not be questioned or challenged
- The need to link tenacity to ego

The world wants conscious or authentic tenacity

Which is about personal security - built on unshakable clarity of who, what, and why we are; characterized by:

- Not needing to win arguments (battles) but wanting to win hearts (wars, like staff engagement).
- Not being attached to being right, but being curious
- The security to not mind being questioned or challenged
- The desire to link tenacity to consciousness

Who is authentic tenacity for?

It's for ourselves

- Peace of mind, reduced stress
- Clarity and focus - grit to see things through
- Openness to other's perspectives

It's for our people

- For them being heard and seen
- For them to feel secure in our leadership
- For them to trust that the whole team will push through and succeed

It's for our purpose

- It provides direction
- It sets us up for triumphing in and through our people, more on that in next month's MIU.
- It creates a lasting legacy

When do we need to be tenacious?

Slow down to speed up!

- The consciousness journey is important and will only become urgent when it's too late!
- It takes time investing being curious about who, what, why, and when we are!
- Our investments in ourselves will allow others to invest in themselves too!
- So, the simple answer is NOW!

How do we grow authentic tenacity?

It's simply about getting clear on

- Who we are - wiring, personality, culture, and values
- Why we are - passions, purposes, and legacy
- What we are – the fullness of what we are - mind, body, senses, emotions, gut, spirit
- When we are - times & seasons, experiences, and opportunities

In other words, it's a natural consequence of the ongoing journey of becoming a conscious leader!
