IAN HATTON

Ian Hatton, also known as Morpheus, moves his audiences to live and lead consciously and authentically. An international keynote speaker and conscious leadership expert, he is also the creator of the Morpheus Genius and Lead Like Morpheus programs.

Ian's authentic and heartfelt delivery draws on his vast experience as a leader and trainer in the IT sector, corporate world, professional and community organisations. In 2022, the Southern African Professional Speakers Association inducted him into its Educators Hall of Fame for his conscious leadership work.

For audiences intent on not only performance but also lasting legacy, Ian Hatton is the keynote speaker of choice.
