IAN HATTON

Ian Hatton, also known as Morpheus, moves his audiences to lead and live consciously and authentically. An international keynote speaker and conscious leadership expert, he is also the author of Lead Like Morpheus: The Genius of Conscious Leadership.

Ian's authentic and heartfelt delivery draws on his vast experience as a leader and trainer in the IT sector, corporate world, professional and community organisations. As founder of Totally Morpheus, he spearheads a global community of conscious leaders. Ian received his Masters Degree in Organisational Leadership from Regent University in the United States. In 2022, the Professional Speakers Association of Southern Africa inducted him into its Educators Hall of Fame for his conscious leadership work.

For audiences intent on not only performance but also lasting legacy, Ian Hatton is the keynote speaker of choice.
